

Unit 3 – Reflection

Unit 3 was a heavily theoretical week. During this week I studied the different research designs and methods for preparing a literature review document and research proposal.

Additionally, I decided which methods are most appropriate for my assignments and prepared an e-portfolio component.

Even though I had written an undergraduate thesis before, I was not aware of the research methods. Therefore, I found Unit 3 to be very enlightening.