Unit 4 – Reflection

In unit 4 I studied the Python Data Structures for retaining different attributes of data. It was a nice change to work with a little bit of code. Additionally, I had a call with my team members to agree on our approach for the upcoming assignment. We also started using ClickUp as our main project management tool.

Overall, it was a nice and slightly more relaxed week.